

1.0 Interests1.1 Social Studies*1.1.0 Economics

My Interest: Different kinds of marketplaces, exchanges, anomolies, or practices that can work here in America.

1.1.1 Politics1.1.1.0 Libertarian

The political spectrum is not as simple as left and right. I tend to agree with Libertarian's the most, followed by Republicans, but neither of these parties express my views exactly.

I Agree With (in descending order): Voluntarist, Mutualist, Libertarian, Republican, Agorist, and Democrats.

I Am Registered: Non Partisan

1.2 Passion

My real passion in life? Connecting people including observation, challenges, and experiments to form better relationships, communities, and efforts.

1.3 Sculpting

I Am Interested In: Building delicate and beautiful structures with solid corn starch, in the form of packing peanuts. I originally rejected sculpting because I did not enjoy clay, but then I established a new art form that I could enjoy.

2.0 Experiences2.1 Caring for Friends Animals

My Duties: mostly physical work and outsmarting animals I had no knowledge of working with: Cows, goats, chickens, and sheep.

2.2 JROTC Air Force Student Program

ROTC ended up not being for me but I enjoyed the activities especially when helping the community and I learned I was not interested in enlistment.

2.3 Sports2.3.0 Swimming 3 years in high school*2.3.1 Wrestling a year in high school

I Learned: The sport was not for me but exercising was very fun.

2.4 Professional Naming

My Duties: Researching and showing off creativity
Reward: Taking the stress off of the sprouting entrepreneurs.

2.5 Business Consultation

My Duties: Modernizing businesses that hadn't moved all of their activities online.

Success: I was able to drive more customers and interest to my clients after only a week.

2.6 Church (a project)

The Goal: Help connect both theist and atheist among all religions so they can learn from each other and escape their single world views.

3.0 Volunteer Service3.1 Heartland Granary

My Duties: Packaging, stoking, helping customers, and working the cash register.

3.2 Avon Park Relay for Life 2008-2012

My Duties: I managed games, a team, and simple errands - which included money handling and physical labor.

4.0 Skills4.1 People

I Love: Conversation and public speaking

4.2 Computers4.2.0 Android

I Enjoy: Creativity and difficulty attached to programming

4.2.1 Web Design

I Operate: A website and through it a Blog and WebStore where individuals can purchase my artwork.

4.3 Love for Learning and Problem Solving4.4 Creativity

I Enjoy: Many classically artistic things including drawing, design, and sculpting (See 1.3 to the left). But I also view every skill as an art.
